

A TIMES OF INDIA PUBLICATION

INDIA'S TOP YOUNG & POWERFUL

HELLO!

ISSUE 4 • JULY 2014 • ₹120

SUPER EXCLUSIVE

AKASH M AMBANI

IN HIS FIRST INTERVIEW EVER

ALIVE

Turn to our Contents page
for details

MW47140701

MEN'S SPECIAL

PHOTO COURTESY: AFP

JYOTIRADITYA SCINDIA

★ POLITICIAN

Jyotiraditya Scindia can really go to town when putting together an ensemble. From yellow trousers to Hermès belts, velvet badhgalas and Ferragamo shoes, he's donned them all. His father, the late Madhavrao Scindia was a well-turned out politico too, what with him being a royal and all. It's no wonder then that we've chosen Jyotiraditya's son, Aryaman in our list of next-gen style makers as well... the apple, not far, you get the gist.

OMAR ABDULLAH

POLITICIAN

It's a tough thing to be well turned out when you're the boss-man of a state where there are AK47 skirmishes every few minutes and temperatures drop to wine-freezing extremes. But somehow Omar manages to pull it off. Smart suits, even smarter achkans and overcoats make up Abdullah's sartorial diet.

PHOTO COURTESY SAURABH DUA

PHOTO COURTESY AFP

GAUTAM THAPAR

INDUSTRIALIST

Thapar dresses with the stylish élan of a man who knows he's at the top of a tiny pinnacle. Blue suits and understated ties, sometimes paired with beige trousers, echo volumes about days spent in the Hamptons or somewhere Ivy leaved on the American East Coast.

ARJUN RAMPAL

ACTOR

The stint as a model must have surely taught Arjun how to wear what and where. It's no wonder then that Rampal, is just as well turned out at soirées as his wife Mehr. A black jacket, white shirt and a pair of jeans, that's what Arjun sports the best, once in a while putting on a black tie with a Dior suit to mix it up a bit.

HELLO!

MEN OF STYLE
NEXT-GEN

YOUNG BUT STYLISH
NONETHELESS, THESE GENTS ARE CREATING TRENDS IN INDIAN
FASHION JUST AS INFLUENTIALLY AS THOSE WHO'VE BEEN STYLE
MAVENS LONG BEFORE
THEY WERE BORN

ARKESH SINGH DEO

BUDDING POLITICIAN

Once a model for Canali, Arkesh is the brother of Kalikesh Singh Deo, who had made quite a mark for himself in New Delhi, as a political leader from Orissa. After a quick retirement from the world of fashion, Arkesh now spends his time in his home state sporting starched white kurtas in the day time when meeting the masses and rich, luxe bandhgallas and sherwanis when attending a wedding or more formal event.

ARYAMAN SCINDIA

STUDENT

Aryaman Scindia is picking up all the right sartorial lessons from his extremely well turned out parents, Jyotiraditya and Priyadarshini Raje Scindia. Short cropped hair with well-cut suits and bandhgallas make up this youngster's look. He often throws in a flamboyant pocket square to glam things up.

PHOTO COURTESY: RYAN MARTIS